

North of England
Commissioning Support

Guide to using the NECS MicroGuide antibiotic guidelines app

Medicines Optimisation Team
NHS North of England Commissioning Support

10th March 2015

What's included in the app?

- Prescribing guidelines for the management of infections commonly encountered in primary care, based on Public Health England guidance
- Information to support antibiotic prescribing and antimicrobial stewardship in primary care
  - Clostridium difficile
  - Penicillin allergy
  - Delayed prescribing
  - Patient information leaflets
  - Education and training resources
- Full version of the guideline available at <http://medicines.necsu.nhs.uk/antibiotics>

How to download the app

Download the app
Search for MicroGuide in the Apple App Store or Google Play

Register*
Enter your CCG/
organisation name in
Your Trust

Select North of England
Commissioning Support Unit from the list of trusts

Download the guide

*Registration will be mandatory from 1st April 2015. Users who have not registered by this date will be required to re-register.

Accessing the treatment guidelines

Accessing the supporting information

How to access another Trust's guidelines

Feedback

Comments, enquiries or suggestions can be submitted through the link on the app or by using the link below

www.surveymonkey.com/NECSabxapp

